The Swedish delegation to the United Nations plans to protest today [15 April 1953] against US action in excluding from the US a Canadian woman who had planned to represent the WIDF* at the UN. This protest will be based on the contention that the US has no right to interfere in UN affairs by excluding from the country a person who has legitimate business with the UN. I understand that the new secretary-general of the UN will support the Swedish delegation's protest.
